VISION

“To position ourselves as an innovative leader in the oil & gas industry and to pioneer sustainable development in the nation”

MISSION

“To provide contemporary & inventive solutions and services to clients. We achieve this by empowering our employees and by creating an optimal environment, which our partners are proud to associate with”

SERVICES

BUNKERING

We offer bunker fuel and lubricants to cater for the specific needs of our various customers. We are capable of providing bunker deliveries through multiple supply points (both in-port and out-port limit) and proficient blending capabilities.

Our vessels look to cater to the needs of an estimated number of 20000 ships, which pass through the Strait of Hormuz. Additionally, we also service requirements of over 400 ships at the ports in UAE

PRECIOUS METALS

Kiah has also forayed into the world of precious metals trading, establishing lucrative ties in Ghana, Nigeria, Uganda and Central Africa. We deal in the trade of gold, silver, platinum and palladium along with precious gems. Kiah follows strict rules in the procurement of precious metals and gems making us a reliable partner in your supply chain.

GLOBAL REACH

Kiah has entered into strategic partnerships with physical suppliers based in Fujairah, ABC Bunkering Co, Oil Marketing and Trading International, and Cocket Marine & Gulf Petroleum Company are some of the names that are currently associated with Kiah. Requirements in the Fujairah region will be handled by us, and our clients will enjoy a smooth and hassle free process. Our reach extends into Gibraltar and Malta as well, where we have continued relationships with Cocket Marine, and a new partner in Mac Oil.

Kiah will be able to offer services in Singapore offshore supplies as well, with Cocket Marine and Ocean Bunkering being our two key partners in the region. We also provide clients with absolute assurance of undertaking any volume in the area on their behalf.
